You'll also love the comfortable 34"-scale neck. The Custom Classic Jazz Bass is available with maple or rosewood fingerboard; Jazz Bass V is offered with a pau ferro or maple fingerboard. The Custom Classic Jazz Bass IV and V feature an alder body on Three-color Sunburst, Olympic White, Black and Ice Blue Metallic; and an ash body on Aged Cherry Sunburst, Ebony Transparent, Bing Cherry Transparent and Cobalt Blue Transparent.

'60 STRATOCASTER®

04 (Daphne Blue)

A detailed recreation of a 1960 Strat both inside and out! Cosmetically, it features a nitrocellulose-lacquered alder body and '60s “C”-shape maple neck complete with clay dot markers, and for the first time in its history – a smaller truss rod and slab laminated rosewood fingerboard. Its three Custom '60s single-coil pickups are accurate to the original, as far as materials and windings, producing a characteristically smooth, glassy tone. Beneath the surface, we've even imitated the crude pickup wire routing in the body cavity and undercoating.

'66 STRATOCASTER®

45 (Teal Green Metallic)

The Time Machine series 1966 Stratocaster guitar is an exact reproduction of one of the most rapidly collectible Stratocaster guitars around, right down to its nitrocellulose-lacquered alder body with a catalyzed undercoat. The “Big Peg” headstock design, early ‘60s “C”-shape neck and “F”-key tuners set this guitar apart and its “transition” logo, Pearloid inlays and “F” neck plate pay homage to a brief but important part of Fender’s history.

'69 STRATOCASTER®

00 (3-Color Sunburst)

The '69 Strat® represents a pivotal time for both music and Fender® guitars. Its large headstock and round-lam fingerboard took us from Woodstock into a new era. An alder body, "U"-shape maple neck, maple or rosewood fingerboard, white/black/white pickguard and custom '60s single-coil pickups are offered in this vintage classic. True to the original, the '69 Strat has a catalyzed undercoat and lacquer topcoat.

'64 JAZZ BASS®

00 (3-Color Sunburst)

The foundation of American music is built on the Fender® bass. Think about your favorite rock band. Chances are, the bassist was laying it down on none other than a Fender bass. Some of the most significant tracks were done using a Fender Jazz Bass, and here – in all its glory – is the legendary 1964 model offered in three finishes (Relic, Closet Classic and N.O.S.). The '64 J Bass® features an alder body with a maple neck and a round laminate rosewood fingerboard. Nickel/chrome hardware, vintage reverse tuning machines and a four-ply tortoiseshell pickguard complete the package. Accompanied by a black vinyl case, strap and cable.

TELECASTER® THINLINE

07 (Vintage Blonde)

Originally conceived as a model that “could” have been made during the halcyon days of the early '50s, Custom Shop Senior Master Builder Chris Fleming recently designed the Tele Thinline with many of the same features and materials found in early Nocaster® guitars. The one major difference is its thinline, nitrocellulose-finished ash body complete with f-hole (we didn't begin building thinline guitars until 1968). Additional features include a straight-grain, lightly tinted one-piece maple neck, Chris Fleming custom-wound pickups and vintage bridge.
